

Napa Mermaid hotel is very sensitive to the safety and protection of children and their rights. We understand that sexual exploitation and other forms of child abuse can happen in the tourism industry. As a result, our hotel is committed to protect the children against any form of exploitation, abuse or labor.

To assure this we:

1. Provide awareness and ensure that all our employees understand why protecting children is important, how to distinguish basic children abuse and what is expected from them.
2. Demand from employees to report any suspicions to the hotel's management.
3. The hotel management will report such incidents to the local authorities always respecting the rights of our guests.
4. Have zero tolerance to child pornography, trafficking, sexual abuse or prostitution.

The Hotel Manager, 10/07/2021